

Alta Leola Barnett

November 20, 1934 - January 8, 2022

Alta Leola Barnett, 87 of Chanute, passed away Saturday, January 8th at Country Place Assisted Living Center.

Alta was born November 20, 1934 in Earlton, Kansas. The daughter of Leo Felkins and Lois (Reed) Felkins. She was the oldest of three children. Alta graduated in 1952 from Chanute High School.

Alta was a partner in Wrestler Boats and Campers. Later she worked at Kay's Hallmark Store, then as a paraprofessional. She loved music and playing the piano. She had a beautiful singing voice. Later in life she found another talent as she learned how to paint, creating several beautiful pictures. She loved being outside, gardening, and canning. She was always willing to try a new recipe and bring it to family gatherings. A family favorite was her homemade noodles. Spunkiness and sassiness were loving terms used to describe her, even when her sons-in-law would heckler her. Family was important to her and she would do anything to help them, not afraid to speak out and fearlessly defend them.

Alta is survived by her six children:

Marsha Aikins (Kenny), Sand Springs, OK

Cindy King (Terry), Chanute, KS

Glennis Wilson (Lonnie), Chanute, KS

Glenn Wrestler, Jr. (Debbie), Chanute, KS

Scott Wrestler, Chanute, KS

Tony Wrestler (Dawn) Hahira, Georgia

Sister-in law:

Phyllis Felkins, Rogers, Arkansas

Twenty-six Grandchildren

Thirty-four Great-grandchildren

Three Great-great grandchildren

Alta was preceded in death by her brothers Alvin Felkins and Harold Felkins, Grandsons Kirk Wrestler and Mikey Wrestler.
