“ My Aunt Nanna's was a special lady. I loved to hear her laugh. She had a heart of gold. I remember going over to her and Uncle Donnie's house for Sunday dinner. She could really cook. Every time I went back to Kansas I would make sure that I visited her and Uncle Donnie. If they weren't home I could find them at Buffalo Lake fishing. WE would just spend the afternoon visiting. Just talking about family and any thing that came up. I will really miss that when I come home. I still will visit my Uncle Donnie when I go back. He's a really good man who love very much. Now she will be with Granny, Granchie, Dad and Aunt Ethel. I will miss you Aunt Nanna's. Love you Aunt Nanna's.

“ Aunt Anna May - We will remember you as energetic, caring, thoughtful, full of life, the voice of a song bird, hysterically funny, a great dancer, hopelessly and romantically in love with Uncle Donnie, protector of her family, and a force to be reckoned with. Rest peacefully. Thank you for your unconditional love and strength - Love you, Tina, Idris, and Paul Walker.

“ I met Anna May about 18 years ago and grew to love her. She had a beautiful voice and a giving, caring heart. One of my fondest memories is one June the church took a trip to the Independence Zoo. It just happened to be my birthday and Anna May surprised me with a birthday cake. I will miss her.

I met Mrs. Anna May about 12 years ago when I first attended the Church. She was so kind hearted, and accepting of my girls and I. She truly loved unconditional. We will miss her a lot.
