“ Dear Pamela, I was shocked and saddened to read of Lynn's passing. Please accept my condolences. I did not know him well, but taught his brother Larry and knew his dad, Carl. Lynn was a gifted athlete in a community that admires athletics, and it would have been easy for his talents to go to his head, but even as a young man, Lynn carried himself as a Mackey, and the Mackey family have always been respected and admired by those who know them. Please extend my sympathy to his family. If there is ever any way I may be of service to you, his children or his family, do not hesitate to contact me (r_hilliard@bellsouth.net).

You, Lynn, and his family are in my thoughts and prayers. Those prayers include prayer for comfort, strength and courage. God bless you.

*Dear mr Hilliard....thank you for the very gracious and kind words about my "lynn" . It has been 4 weeks now and i still feel like my heart has been ripped out and that i am only half of a person.....You will be happy to know that Lynn continued to be a very honest and kind and respected man ... We were married in 2004 and believe me he was the LOVE of my life and we did absolutely everything together! He taught me what true true unselfish love could be like ! He had 3 children and i had 7 when we met... He went on and adopted my youngest daughter monica joy mackey and we adopted a son together that we have had since the day he was born... his name is michael nicholas moroni mackey and lynn thought the sun rose and set in him...He of course returned the love right back to his daddy and still clutches the picture of his daddy every night when he goes to sleep ... it breaks my heart and i know that if i didnt have michael (who is almost 21 months old) i would truly die of a broken heart! I am thankful that lynn is with the lord and with bryant who we lost in 2008 in Iraq ! I dont know how people that dont have a faith ever make it as it hurts so bad for those of us left behind even when we know we will be reunited again some day ! Larry and his wife glenda have been a great comfort to me and i am blessed to have them for family. as well as vera and carl ! Again i thank you for your kind remarks and condolences and prayers as its hurts so bad with prayers ..i absolutely cannot imagine the pain without them ! Know that i send you blessings back to you and yours God bless

“*Lynn Mackey was a friend and teammate of mine in high school. He was an outstanding athlete, especially in track. I also remember him as a friend to many, a fun person to be around, and an all around good guy. Even though I have not seen him in years, I was saddened to learn of his passing. To all of his family, I wish you God's comfort and care at a time of sorrow and sadness. Sincerely,
Allen Voth*

Allen ..thank you for posting such sweet memories...he actually had mentioned you and several of his friends in stories he always shared with me . He was a very very honorable man and that is only one of many many wonderful traits that made him as special of a man as possible to me...!! He made me laugh many times as he shared stories of his adventures with the gang he grew up with!! I loved him like i have never ever loved anyone in my life and that same special gift of a man from the Good Lord above was and is my best friend and i cannot tell you how i miss him so very much as i feel like not only is my heart ripped out but my better half is gone from my side and things will never be the same again ..In this life anyways but i know there is a but a short time (in Gods timelline that is) and i will be reunited with my love , my husband and my bestfriend again..Thank you again allen!! God bless you and yours pamela
