I have so many fond memories of Crystal. She will be missed on so many levels. I remember her sleepovers for her birthdays the most and the doughnuts that her dad would buy us in the morning for breakfast. I am saddened by her passing. Love to her family.

When Crystal was born she was the most beautiful baby I had ever seen. I remember how excited and proud everyone was and especially her grandmother Jerry. Her children have wonderful maners, and I know she had to be very proud of them. She was a very good mother to them. I know they will miss her so much. They should do well in life with the upbringing they have experienced. We are so sorry for their tragic loss. We will miss Crystal's sweet and caring personality. Sincerely, Betty and Orville Schmidt

I'm so sorry for your family's loss if there is any way I can help Galye even if its just to talk its so hard to lose our children .

Just remember she had to go because God called her. and left you behind to care for her children. She lovd Shorty so much she talked about her and the kids were going someplace with papa Shorty as she called him. I will pray for all the family ther are so many people who loved her let that be a comfort.
