“ David was a very special person, I met him working at Pete's, him and I became good friends, he would come just about everyday and buy livers for his dog, that dog would watch every move he made. That dog was part of him. We would talk about the Chiefs every week, but the one thing that was so special about him was when it came to CASA, he would say he give anything because it was for the kids, if we had baked goodies we knew David would be there. He will be missed tremendously, RIP my dear friend, you were one of a kind.
