“ As a child, I remember many visits to Aunt Edna's farms. We always had delicious meals and often had all the family members she could contact joining us. She worked hard and always had baked goods either fresh or frozen ready to share with family visitors. I remember many nights of my parents playing pinochle or other card games after the table was cleared and dishes were washed and dried. A generation has gone because Edna was the last of my father's surviving siblings. I pray that God will bless the surviving family with peace and good memories. Cindy (Chandler) Pence
