“Mr. Sanchez taught me Spanish, French and psychology at Savior of the World Seminary. He was also the Intramural coach. Mr. Sanchez cared deeply about us and we knew it. He was a go to guy because you knew you could trust him. He was probably sought out more than the priests. I do not think my brother Mark [Class of 1974] would have returned for his sophomore year except for the fact that Mr. Sanchez called him during the summer to encourage him to return. Mr. Sanchez was a great teacher and a great man. More importantly, he shared the Love of the Lord!

Tim, thank you so much for sharing your kind words about Dad both online and in person. Thank you for the confirmation that he made a difference. Dad truly loved teaching and his students! As I told you today, he referred to his students as "his kids" almost as often as his actual children. Teaching and his students enriched his life greatly. Thank you for your part in that. Dad would have been thrilled to know one of "his kids" from Savior remembered him kindly and cared enough to come to his funeral to celebrate him. – Stephanie Sanchez -
