After retiring from the railroad Janice and Wilford moved back to Chanute to be with family and enjoy their retirement. Janice enjoyed traveling with Wilford, but loved spoiling her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ My sympathy to the family. I don't know if this is the Janice Aday who lived on West 3rd Terrace in Chanute or not. If so, I met her several times. She lived across the street from my Mom. Such a kind, caring woman. She always brought food to Mom's house at the loss of our family members...My prayers are with her and her family.....Dorinda Gormley Carlson

“ Wilford, I remember all the Dec 31 birthdays we spent with you and Jan in Lawrence. We had such fun and Janice always made us so welcome and fed us such wonderful food. She was an excellent cook and I still use many of her recipes. Thoughts of our 45 minutes walks and running the stairs at Tanger Mall and checking on the eagles soaring and catching fish at each landing window. Then there was the time we appeared at the Wilson's door after Joan's surgery with our pails and mops and announced. 'Here we are, "the Baptist Merry Maids" to clean your house. Janice was a very loving and caring person and a lot of fun to spend time with. I won't forget what a treasured friendship we had; Truly Jay and I were blessed by our friendship. I know that when she closed her eyes on this earth she opened them in Heaven to God's smiling face and the joyous singing of the angels!!

“Janice was the best sister a brother could ever hope for and I will surely miss her. She was a great and positive influence on my life. I am blessed to have all the good memories she left for me. She and Wilford, my other brother, were our traveling buddies and traveling will not be the same without her. I will see my little sister again. John 3 : 16. God only knows how much I will miss my sister. Jim Green
