

Jason Neil Edwards

September 6, 1978 - October 24, 2015

Jason Neil Edwards, 37, passed away on Saturday, October 24, 2015 at Neosho Memorial in Chanute KS. Jason was born on September 6, 1978 in Stillwater, Oklahoma, the son of Rolland Edwards, Sr. and Sharon (Henderson) Edwards.

Jason married Alison Lester and later divorced. They had one daughter together, Addison Lester-Edwards.

Jason worked for Yeoman Trucking in Cherryville, Kansas as a truck driver; however, his real passion was being outside at his grill. He attended high school in Humboldt and completed the trucking program at Ft. Scott Community College. Jason loved to BBQ and enjoyed spending time with his neighbors. If his garage door was open, his neighbors were always welcome to stop by and visit and usually Jason would be outside to greet them. He was always watching out for his neighbors. Jason attended Tae Kwon Do classes and was a member of the Sons of American Legion. He was good with his hands – a real jack of all trades whether it was woodworking or crafting, or just fixing things around the house.

Jason was preceded in death by his father, Rolland, his grandparents Chester and Margie Henderson, his uncle Neil Henderson.

He is survived by his mother Sharon (Henderson) Edwards, fiancée Regina Dunn, daughter Addison Lester-Edwards of Humboldt, brother Jeff Edwards of

Chanute, nephew Aaron Gambill of Chanute, 2 Aunts, and several cousins

“ Jason we were friends when you first started school in Humboldt. You came out and we did alot of fishing. Then we got older and thought wiser but not sure about that. One kind of funny thing that comes to mind that happened in Pittsburg. We were in Bootleggers having a good time then they called last call. You and Luke were outside then I came out and you and Luke were fighting half the PSU football team. Cops showed up and you got taken to ER. You got up and said we ain't done yet lets go get them!! Needless to say we came home in our best interest. We all are going to miss you of being here buddy but will never forget you! We will meet again someday!! Keep them in line!!

“ Jason was like one of our own. He used to come and spend week ends with us, hang around in the garage with Bryce and always challenging me in one way or another. Sharon, Bryce and I never did get to meet you but Jason loved his mama. My heart aches for you and I will miss that quirky chipped tooth smile and smarty pants demeanor. Blessed to have known him

“ When I heard about your death, I couldn't believe it. My friend....gone? I thought to myself....no way! We're to young to die. Well, buddy...I guess God needed you in heaven for one reason or another. I know your in a much better place. I also know I can't really share any of our memories we had together without the fear of repercussions by the law....or your family. Lol. Love you brother!!! Your memories will always live in my heart.
