

Jeffery Joseph Rutledge

September 20, 1963 - December 17, 2021

Jeffery “Jeff” Rutledge, 58, of Chanute passed away surrounded by family on Friday, December 17 at Mercy Hospital in Springfield, MO. Jeff was born to the late Marilyn and Howard Rutledge on September 20, 1963 in Chanute, KS.

Jeff was raised on their family farm in Urbana, KS with his older brother, John, and younger sister, Jill Rutledge who he is survived by. Here he learned to ride horses, tend cattle and land, and developed a knack for just about every kind of handy work. A creative talent, Jeff was a gifted welder, wood worker, artist, writer, and an avid reader of western fiction.

Jeff will be remembered as a hardworking family man, always the person you reached out to if you needed a helping hand. His boisterous laugh could fill a room with joy, he always had a joke or a story to share.

He is survived by his beloved wife of nearly 38 years, Traci (Ellis) Rutledge and their four children, Hannah, Jacob, Marilyn, and Haylee Rutledge; his two granddaughters, Amelia and Ramona Banerjee as well as his many nieces, nephews, and their families—all of whom he cherished greatly.

Jeff was a kind and compassionate man adored by his family and friends, his memory will continue to live on through their love for him.
