“Woody grew up on the farm next to ours. Since he was raised as an only child, he spent a lot of time at our house, evidently for entertainment value. My favorite memory of Woody is when he rode his horse to our house one evening, then stayed and watched a scary movie with Daddy, Matt and I. I felt bad for him having to ride his horse home in the dark late that night with Dracula on his tail! I also remember him and Matt jumping their bikes off the rock terrace at our house. His new 10 speed did not take the jumps as well as Matt's Buzz Bike and broke. We had a lot of fun as kids. RIP Woody.

“ I remember many happy family reunions at Hazel and Dales with Woody. Hazel and our mom (Vera Glasco) were sisters. He was always the first to jump in a hay stack or climb up in the hay mow. We also had many fun times swimming in the local ponds and streams and riding the horses that Dale kept. Vaya con Dios Woody

“ I remember playing in the barn at Hazel and Dales' ranch with Woody when we would come to visit in our childhood. Many happy times with Woody. He was always the first to jump in to a hay stack or climb up in the hay mow. We also had fun on the horses they kept and swimming in the local ponds and streams. Hazel was our mom's (Vera Glasco) sister so we visited regularly. Vio con Dios Woody.
