“ Linda was such a sweet neighbor. We have missed our conversations with her and seeing her come and go. At our Garage Sales Linda always kept an eye out for things for her grandchildren. It was nice getting to know her when we came to the neighborhood several years ago. Prayers to the family.

“ I enjoyed being your neighbor and friend, and have missed you every day since you moved. I always look over at your old house and remember you and our little visits. I also always think of you when I see the lighted bird bath. Rest in eternal peace sweet Linda. You are free of fear and pain now.

“ Have known Linda all my life. She graduated HS in YC with my brother back in 1965. We also use to visit at the bowling alley. But more recently we shared a cancer journey together and took chemo on the same. I lost track once she went into the nursing home and did not know where she was. Every Thursday she brought snacks to the cancer clinic for the patients, their families and the nurses. Linda didn't have TV at home so she read and always had a book with her. Her hobby was playing the lottery and buting tickets. I had always hoped she'd hit the big one. I remember when Linda had such a bad case of gout, she could barely walk but never complained. Hit by a car while leaving the library; never complained. I know Linda bartended at various places in her earlier years in Chanute when I really didn't know her that well, but I saw a side of Linda many others didn't and that was when she was truly sick. The massive weight loss, the gout, the cancer slowly taking her life. Yet, she talked about her children and their lives. I hope her children will know how much she loved them. I also asked at the cancer center if there had been any updates but bC of patient confidentiality the staff couldn't discuss anything. I've missed Linda for months now and hope that as she walks with angels that she is finally free of her pain. She and I were friends. I enjoyed her company. To her family: I share in your loss. May a wonderful woman RIP. I loved u Linda. ❤️

She was a truly special light in our lives, "playing the lottery" just like her Aunt Clara & Aunt Chuckie. "never complained" just like her Grandma Hamilton. She will be missed.
