years of marriage. The couple spent the first four years of their married life in Columbus, KS where Loy was Cherokee County Extension 4-H agent. In 1963

they made their home at rural Erie, where they owned and operated the Reinhardt

Dairy

Farm in partnership with his parents, Ralph and Lotos, with brother Richard and Linda joining the farm in 1967. In 1986 Loy became a career agent for Farm Bureau

Insurance retiring in 2006.

Loy has been an active member of the Big Creek United Methodist Church of rural

Chanute and in recent years they enjoyed attending services at Otterbein Community Church. He held leadership roles with Kansas Farm Bureau and Mid-America Dairymen. He was a lifelong 4-H member, leader and supporter. He enjoyed mentoring

4-H youth serving as judge for 4-H day competitions as well as area county fairs. Loy was a member of the Chanute FFA Chapter and served as a State FFA Officer.

Loy is survived by his wife, Janis Reinhardt, Chanute, one son, Mark (Linda) Reinhardt,
