“ Grams you were the best grams I could if ever had. This world lost a special person on January 30th. I miss you so much already and I know I will even more. I'll miss our talks we had everyday both short and long. While I was still in school and a kid and as an adult and away to college. I love you to heaven and back and I wish heaven wasn't so far away beavsue it make losing you easier. I love you and please take care if my mommy.

Dear Friends,

I was sorry to read of the death of Martha Jean. I remember her and Jose, especially how nice they were to me and how happy they were with their new home.

Here's a prayer I've found helpful as I have grieved for members of my family who have died:

May choirs of angels escort you into Paradise:

And at your arrival may the martyrs receive and welcome you;

May they bring you home into the holy city, Jerusalem.

May the holy angels welcome you,

and with Lazarus, who lived in poverty, may you have everlasting rest.

Saints of God, come to her aid!

Come to meet her, angels of the Lord!

May Christ who called you, take you to himself;

May angels lead you to Abraham's side.

Give her eternal rest, O Lord,

and may your light shine on her forever.

Receive her soul and present her to God,

to God the Most High.

(Prayer from Catholic liturgy).

May Martha Jean

find a place of light, happiness and peace and rejoice forever in the vision of God's glory.

With deepest sympathy and prayers that the love of God and the support of family and friends comfort you in your time of sorrow.
