“Went on vacation with the whole family the summer of 1976 to Galveston with Uncle Jim and Aunt Mary. She was showing mom her "Microwave" oven and none of us had ever been around one.....mom had one in less than a month after we got home. Spent a week with most of their family and all of ours in a old beach house that a think Randy and Mike thought used to be a Mexican restaurant. A lot of fun and great memories from that trip and other trips to the ocean with her and our families.
