“ I met Polly in FL at the Alifia. She and her sister were such a joy to be around. They also were very willing to help others when they needed help. They helped me on many an occasion. May she soar with the Eagles and be in the Lord's loveing hands forever! May those of us left behind, continue to learn from her everytime we think of her. There will always be a place in my heart for her.

“ I didn't know when I agreed to give this sweet girl a ride home that I'd just met my future daughter in law. She was so sweet and funny. Her laughter was so contagious that you couldn't help but laugh with her. One of my favorite memories of her is when Adam was about 2 years old. He'd learned to open bottles and I had forgotten to put the bottle of cooking oil up out of reach. He opened that fairly new bottle up and poured it all over the floor. Oh my. Polly and I slipped and slid all over that kitchen trying to get it all wiped up. We laughed so hard. We couldn't figure out how to get that last film of oil up and so I called Jane for advise. As I was dialing, Polly says "you know what Mom will say? 'Just google it'". And laughed so hard I thought she was going to split a seam. Polly, I miss your laughter and sweet smiles. I love you.

“ I remember a good time at the southwestern rendezvous and Polly beating John in the eating contest with moon pies neither one of them could talk their mouths were so dry. She had a good time rubbing it in that she beat him. I loved seeing Polly because she always had that big beautiful smile.

“ In the short time we had with you we made beautiful memories, never forgotten! I loved having the kids just hang out at the house! I smile when I think of watching the kids bowling! I can not recall a time that Polly wasn't smiling! Her sweet smile remains firm in my mind and my heart! We love "our" Henry family and precious sweet Polly!

“ In the short time we had with you we made great memories, never forgotten! We treasure the times you kids just hung out at the house and I especially smile when I think of the times watching the kids bowling! I've tried to think of a time Polly wasn't smiling and I can not! Her sweet smile was always ever present! We love "our" Henry family and dear sweet Polly!!
