“Rosie;
She was a truly special person, and that kind of enduring friendship—spanning over 50 years—is a rare and beautiful thing. I joined the family in 1967 and stayed close even when life pulled me in different direction. The bond we shared and the warmth she brought to the family was the glue that held everyone together. It’s clear she left a significant mark on everyone who knew her. I’m so sorry for our loss, but what a gift to have had a "sister-in-law" like her all these years. Rosie will be greatly missed by family and friends.
