“Ruth was my aunt and only eleven years older. I called her Ushie her entire life because when I was little I couldn't say "Ruthie." She would get out and play with me, take me for rides on her horse and sometimes took me to Fairview School with her where I remember taking my naps on the piano bench.

She took care of other people more than anyone else I have ever known. And dogs and cats too. She was the most giving person I have ever known.

If anyone ever deserved to go straight to Heaven, she was that person. I'll see you there, Ushie.
