“ We deeply love Sharon and our hearts go out to Jim and the family. Sharon always maintained a sweet spirit in everything - church member, music leading, secretary, nursing home visitation, bookstore business, friendship. Tabitha was hit very hard with her loss because to this present day, Sharon was such an encourager to her. We so look forward to our reunion with her in the Lord (I Thess. 4:16-17).

“ I worked with Sharon at the bookstore for many years. I can honestly say that I have never met a kinder, lovelier woman. She was always there for each one of us. No one could have asked for a better employee than Sharon. Her presence will be missed greatly. Jim and family are in my daily prayers.
