“ I love you and you will be missed. Reminiscing about our time as family on the farm - your big smile and always joking- demolition derby- you playing Santa Claus at Gibson's, made my little brother cry. I was always proud to share your middle name. Keep my Dad company in heaven until we meet again.

“ It was such a pleasure taking care of Spencer. His smile would brighten, even the worst days. Rest in peace sweet Spencer. My sympathy and prayers are with Donna, Todd, Karen, and the rest of the family.

“ Oh what great memories of our Chanute classmate. I look at that picture on the obituary website and how it rekindles great moments and memories of a guy who possessed the most beautiful smile in the world---literally. Just take a look for yourself or, if you knew Spencer personally, just close your eyes and think of him and that smile will radiate to you!!

Spencer liked everybody and vice versa. Some of us visited him a few years ago during AA weekend and as we were leaving we all turned to wave goodbye and there was that smile---as always. So there is no doubt in my mind Heaven will be smiling tonite for sure and forever I guess.

And a parting word of thanks to his wonderful wife Donna, who managed to live nearby and could almost always be found at his side, comforting him always. And he knew it I have no doubt. Now he rests in HIS arms, all the suffering and pain gone away. Heaven is a better place with Spencer as a resident!!
