“ Our family became neighbors and friends with Vicki's family in 1963. Thru the years our lives have changed, but I could always count on Vicki being there when I needed to talk to her. I will always remember her telling the little kids left in her care to “just be decent”. Fantastic advice!
We all will miss her so much!
Our entire family offer our heartfelt condolences to the girls and her entire family at this time. We pray for God's love to be a comfort to all of you.

Aunt Vicki was a kind person. I loved visiting her and Uncle Norman.
