“ I'm so sorry to see this! I remember Vetta when she was in high school, as my former husband, Everett Walker, and Clyde were best friends. I don't know if you girls knew or not, but Everett passed away December 7, 2017. When Vetta's sister Brenda was born, Wilma and I shared a room in the lola Hospital, as that was when my daughter, Peggy was born, also. I didn't know Bill had passed, but I don't hear from lola folks very often. She will be missed, and as the "big sister", she will always have a very special place in your hearts.
